1. Introduction

The Canadian Books in Ontario Schools Fund is designed to support publishers in the creation of supplementary resources to support learning and teaching through the curriculum for established works of Canadian literature, and/or collective marketing activities that will ensure that educational professionals are aware of Canadian titles suitable for use in their classrooms.

Funding will be provided to support projects that meet eligibility requirements and can demonstrate that the project will help strengthen the publisher's footprint in Ontario classrooms and promote opportunities for classroom use of established Canadian literary works to Ontario's educators through supplementary resources associated with those titles.

Please see Section 7 for important information on insurance and contract requirements for successful applicants.

OMDC values and supports diversity and gender parity within creative industries. The evaluation criteria for this program includes a bonus score for projects/activities that support and reflect diversity and gender parity in Ontario, and/or applications from Francophone, Indigenous, culturally and otherwise diverse applicants. Please see Section 6 for more information
